- The individual has trained, influenced or motivated many of the current researchers and investigators in neuro-oncology.
- The individual has been a strong advocate, supporter and leader in the field of research in neuro-oncology.
- Over the course of his or her career, the individual has made significant and lasting contributions to the field of research in neuro-oncology.

The Raymond Sawaya 2016 Award

The Raymond Sawaya Award is given to a meritorious individual who has made significant contributions in neuro-oncology over the course of his or her career. The recipient is honored as a guest of the Society (free registration) at the SNOLA Meeting and is presented with a plaque.

Award Criteria

It is anticipated that:

- The candidate shall have a career span of 10+ years in the neuro-oncology field.
- The individual has trained, influenced or motivated many of the current clinicians and investigators in neuro-oncology.
- The individual has been a strong advocate, supporter and leader in the field of neuro-oncology.
- Over the course of his or her career, the individual has made significant and lasting contributions to the field.

Nominations Process

Nominations may be made by any Latin American SNOLA member scientist or clinician, who is currently or has been affiliated with any institution involved in cancer research or cancer medicine. The nominee need not be a member of SNOLA.

The SNOLA Awards Committee shall evaluate the nominees based on the criteria above and forward a short-list of nominees to the SNOLA Board of Directors who shall select the winner.

To make a nomination for either of the Awards, please send an email to twyla.bueno@snola.org with the nominee's information (name, specialty and country), the award you are indicating, as well as a brief description of why this individual is deserving of such award.

NOMINATIONS DUE BY JANUARY 15, 2016.

Note: Nominators are asked to maintain the confidentiality of the nomination process and to refrain from informing the candidate of their nomination.
